IMPORTANT TAX DOCUMENT
Permanent Tax Resident Notification

Dear Traveling Employee,

The IRS requires that you pay taxes on travel expense reimbursement and housing benefits unless you are maintaining a permanent tax residence, while on assignment with us. The attached form will provide us with needed information about your permanent tax residence.

If you do not return this completed form to us, or if you do not meet the permanent tax residence criteria, the IRS requires that, we treat travel and housing benefits as income and withhold taxes accordingly.

You should consult with a tax advisor regarding your permanent tax residence and the taxability of travel and housing benefits.

The IRS criteria used to determine whether you are maintaining a permanent tax residence is outlined below.

1. There must be a realistic expectation that you will return to live at your permanent tax residence; and your permanent tax residence must be separate and distinct from your temporary residence; and
- 1) You must be paying to maintain your permanent tax residence while you are on assignment (i.e. rent, mortgage, room and board); and
- 2) Generally, you must meet at least one of the following criteria:
 - a. You live at your permanent tax residence prior to your current employment, or
 - b. You have a family member utilizing this residence, or you utilize it frequently for the purpose of your own lodging.

The permanent tax residence must be your habitable living quarters, and should be at least 50 miles apart from your temporary residence. Payments to maintain your permanent tax residence must be real and substantial.

The IRS considers employment away from home in a single location that exceeds one year, to be indefinite, not temporary. Under these conditions, housing and travel benefits would be subject to withholding.

Please complete the attached PERMANENT TAX RESIDENCE FORM AND RETURN IT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

You are responsible for notifying Coastal in writing if there is a change in your permanent tax residence status.

Again, failure to return this form will require us to treat travel and housing benefits as income, and to withhold taxes accordingly.
